STATION : AB-102, Munich REPORT NO. : MCF-298
 REFERENCE : MSC-306; OPS/004 REPORT DATE : 29 Nov. 1946 #60
 SOURCE : GULL (B) INFO DATE : Current
 SUB-SOURCE : Nina RAFAET (F) DATE INFO REC'D: 21 Nov. 1946
 EVALUATION: F-0
 SUBJECT : Operation SPHINX (I)
 Maj. Yuri REZCHIKOV

NOTE. Subject is a former old emigrant, now an NKVD Major stationed at Potsdam.

1. Nina RAFAET, is the former owner of the Berlin restaurant BAKEL. She recently evacuated to Munich. Nina was REZCHIKOV's close friend.

2. Sub-source reports that subject claims to be entirely satisfied with his new position as an NKVD major and would never again wish to go back to being a stateless Russian emigrant. He states that the Red Army has re-established the dignity of the officer class, provided him with a private car, and proper comforts of life. He is convinced that the ideals of the USSR will eventually be triumphant throughout the world.

3. REZCHIKOV, who is surrounded by Russian Jewish officers, states that anti-Semitism is rapidly rising among the army rank and file. On the other hand, there are many cases of fraternization between Soviet and American service personnel of either Russian or Polish Jewish origin.

4. Comment by AB-102: It is presumed that upon completion of Operation SPHINX, a great deal more data will be available on subject, and the possibility, if any, of his diversion.

Why should this man be considered?
